The unification of Hindus, Muslims, Sikhs, Jains, Christians and Buddhists is required to understand the meaning of true religion.

True religion unites all religions!

• NATH YOGI

Rama Rao Das asks,
 'Oh! my Guru, please explain
 As I want to know the truth plain.
 Who is Sikh? Muslim is who?

Who is Buddha? Christ is who?
 Who is Jain? Hindu is who?'
 My Guru says,
 'Know, My son, disciple is Sikh,
 Surrendered one is Muslim,
 Enlightened one is Buddha,
 Son of God is Christ,
 The mind conqueror is Jain,
 Who thinks all as One, is Hindu.'
 Rama Rao Das says,
 'Being Your disciple, I am Sikh,
 Being surrendered to You I am Muslim,
 Being enlightened by You, I am Buddha,
 As the mind has been slain I am Jain,
 Being Your eternal son, I am Christ,
 Considering all as One, I am Hindu,
 Being content with Your knowledge
 Your lotus feet I ever acknowledge.'

After Second World War and collapse of the Ottoman Empire, Turkey had a revolution and a leader like Kemal Pasha the Ataturk emerged, but in India we saw the worst happening and strengthening of the communal politics which resulted in partition of the country and so much worthless bloodshed of innocent people.

Today modern Turkey is a totally different nation than what it was in the past and playing a most important role in world affairs. It is member of the NATO and a key player in Afghanistan (the security of Kabul and Pres. Hamid Karzai is in the hands of the Turkish forces). It is a candidate-member for the European Union.

What is to note is the amusing Pasha and Mohammed Ali Jinnah and both were highly different the Turkish course and took line. One chose to make Turkey a nation and dismantled many of which came in the way, but in India it was the opposite path and calling it the Islamic religious described as 'wild religionism'.

Jinnah did play in the hands of what he wanted but in the long run Muslims in the region and divided into Pakistanis/Indians.
